

FULL-SERVICE, ALL DIGITAL IMAGING NETWORK

TITLE: NucMed/PET Technologist
LOCATION: Ontario	DATE: 01/11/2019
	TYPE: Part time
	HOURLY RATE: Commensurate with Experience

SUMMARY STATEMENT

We are seeking to fill a part time, independent contractor NucMed/PET Technologist position in our Ontario location.

RESPONSIBILITIES

This person will perform NucMed / PET procedures. Positions and instructs the patient, operates imaging equipment and determines the technical factors. Insures correct marketing/labeling of all images. Adheres compliance to the State of California Radiation Safety Regulations and Federal Drug Administration regulations. Provides and confirms proper documentation of procedures requested/performed, patient history, etc. to assist in diagnosis.

REQUIREMENTS

- State of California Nuclear Medicine Technology (CNMT)
- Valid State of California Radiologic Technology (CRT)
- Valid National Certification of Nuclear Medicine Technology (NMTCB)
- Valid State of California Fluoroscopy License
- Valid State of California Venipuncture/IV Contrast License
- Valid American Registry of Radiologic Technology Certification (ARRT)(N) and ARRT(R) or ARRT(CT)
- A minimum 2 years experience within the past 36 months performing Nuclear Medicine Studies
- Minimum of 1 year experience performing PET/CT
- CPR Card for Healthcare provider (AHA Approved Course)

Please e-mail info@centrelakeimaging.com with you most recent resume for consideration.